Thank you for signing up for NPHIC’s Advance Knowledge Track, taking place at the Omni Hotel, downtown Atlanta on Monday, September 10th, in advance of the 2018 Annual National Conference on Health Communication, Marketing, and Media! This special one-day “real world” health communication training opportunity will provide knowledge and hands-on experience in risk communication, strategic communication and topical health issues and the challenges government health communicators face daily on the job.

GETTING TO THE OMNI HOTEL ATLANTA
Participants should make their own transportation arrangements from the airport to the hotel.

OMNI HOTEL
100 CNN Center
Atlanta, GA 30303

Atlanta’s Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International (ATL) is 12 miles from the Omni Hotel. You can catch a taxi upon exit at the airport; the cost for a one-way transfer is approximately $32.00 and will take about 20 minutes.

Other transportation options from the airport:
- Atlanta Airport Shuttle Service (AASC): (404) 641-0962
- When Traveling via MARTA from the Airport: The closest MARTA station is the GWCC/Dome/Philips Arena MARTA station on the blue and green rail line, which is less than a 10-minute walk away. If you are traveling from the airport or any station on the red/gold rail line, take any red or gold train to the Five Points station. At Five Points, look for signs pointing to the westbound platform. You’ll go up one level and get on the first westbound train that arrives (H.E. Holmes or Bankhead). Travel one stop to the Dome station and exit the train. Follow the station’s signs to the Philips Arena exit after getting off the train. Go up the escalator and veer left at street level to enter the courtyard in front of the Georgia Dome. Walk around Philips Arena, turning right in front of the Georgia World Congress Center. The hotel is on the next corner. Tip: There’s also a hotel entrance inside the CNN Center.
- Uber and Lyft are also available. Please contact via the appropriate app after you have collected your luggage and your driver will meet you curbside outside Baggage Claim.

Upon arrival at the Omni Hotel, please check in at the front desk as usual. Check-in time is after 3:00 pm and check-out time is before 12:00 pm.
